

Our family is well served by the positive programming provided by the K-LOVE radio network.

Loss of continuous access to this programming would be disappointing as it serves to encourage my whole family to think about our actions and daily activities as we live in our community.

It is in the best interest of our community and many others to have continuous access to the positive programming provided by this network.